Food Stamps - CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Read carefully before signing this application on page 11. Ask your caseworker to explain anything you do not understand.

Federal law requires a social security number (SSN) for every member of your household who is applying for food stamp benefits. We do not require a social security number for any member of your household who is not eligible for the food stamp program or who does not wish to apply. If you or any member of your household wants to apply for food stamp benefits, but does not have a SSN, we can help you to apply for one. The SSN will be used in the administration of the food stamp program to check the identity of household members, prevent duplicate participation, and to facilitate making mass changes. The SSN will also be used in computer matching and program reviews or audits and to make sure the household is eligible for food stamp benefits, other federal assistance programs, and federally assisted state programs, such as school lunch, TANF, and Medicaid. This may result in criminal or civil action or administrative claims against persons fraudulently participating in the food stamp program.

At this application you must report:

- * Child care expenses
- * Utility expenses

You must report and verify:

- * Rent or mortgage payment, property taxes and insurance
- * Medical expenses
- * Child support paid to a non-FS Unit member

Child support payments are subject to verification by computer matching with the records of the Division of Child Support Enforcement.

Failure to report or verify above expenses will be seen as a statement by your FS Unit that you do not want to receive a deduction for the unreported expenses.

Penalty Warning

The information on this form is subject to verification by federal, state, and local officials. If any information is found to be inaccurate, you may be denied food stamp benefits, and/or be subject to criminal prosecution for knowingly providing false information.

Individuals found guilty in a court of law of trading food stamp benefits for firearms, ammunition, explosives, or controlled substances will be barred from the food stamp program: 1) 24 months for the first offense and permanently for the second offense involving the sale of a controlled substance for food stamp benefits, and 2) permanently for the first offense involving the sale of firearms, ammunition, or explosives for food stamp benefits.

A person found guilty of trafficking food stamp benefits will be permanently barred from the food stamp program.

A person who is found to have made a fraudulent statement or representation about identity and residence to get multiple benefits at the same time will be barred for 10 years.

Persons who are fleeing felons or probation/parole violators are ineligible for food stamp benefits.

Any member of your FS unit who intentionally breaks any of the following rules can be barred from the food stamp program for 12 months after the first violation, 24 months for the second violation, and permanently for the third violation. The person can also be fined up to $250,000, imprisoned up to 20 years, or both. The person may also be subject to further prosecution under other applicable federal laws.

Do not give false information or hide information to get or continue to get food stamp benefits.

Food stamp benefits may not be traded or sold. Food stamp benefits may be used for food products only and may not be used to buy ineligible items, such as alcoholic drinks and tobacco.

Do not use someone else's food stamp benefits for your FS unit.

I understand the questions on this application and the penalty for hiding or giving false information or breaking any of the rules listed in the penalty warning. By signing, I swear that under penalty of perjury the answers are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that documents may have to be provided to prove what I've said. I agree to do this. If documents are not available, I agree to give the name of a person or organization the food stamp office may contact to obtain the necessary proof.
